GENERAL INFORMATION PERTAINING TO WATER RIGHTS IN CALIFORNIA

There are two principal types of surface water rights in California. They are riparian and appropriative rights.

A riparian right enables an owner of land bordering a natural lake or stream to take and use water on his riparian land. Riparian land must be in the same watershed as the water source and must never have been severed from the sources of supply by an intervening parcel without reservation of the riparian right to the severed parcel. Generally, a riparian water user must share the water supply with other riparian users. Riparian rights may be used to divert the natural flow of a stream but may not be used to store water for later use or divert water which originates in a different watershed, water previously stored by others, return flows from use of groundwater, or other "foreign" water to the natural stream system.

An appropriative right is required for use of water on nonriparian land and for storage of water. Generally, appropriative rights may be exercised only when there is a surplus not needed by riparian water users. Since 1914, new appropriators have been required to obtain a permit and license from the State. Appropriate rights can be granted to waters "foreign" to the natural stream system.

Statements of Water Diversion and Use must be filed by riparian and pre 1914 appropriative water users as set forth in Water Code section 5100 with specific exceptions. The filing of a statement (1) provides a record of water use, (2) enables the State to notify such users if someone proposes a new appropriation upstream from their diversions, and (3) assists the State to determine if additional water is available for future appropriators.

The above discussion is provided for general information. For more specific information concerning water rights, please contact an attorney or write to this office. We have several pamphlets available. They include: (1) Statements of Water Diversion and Use, (2) Information Pertaining to Water Rights in California, and (3) Appropriation of Water in California.

Dear Mr. Bradley:

STATEMENTS OF WATER DIVERSION AND USE: S004686 IN PLACER COUNTY

It is the State Water Resources Control Board's (SWRCB) understanding the Union Pacific Railroad Company (UPRR) previously acquired the interest of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company (SPRRC). Our records indicate the SPRRC originally filed two Statements of Water Diversion and Use. These statements are for diversion of water from the Upper Campbell Lake and Lake Mary in Placer County.

Statement S004684 indicates the SPRRC had been diverting water from Upper Campbell Lake since 1922 and is located within Section 30, T17N, R13E, MDB&M, Statement S004686 indicates the SPRRC had also been diverting water from Lake Mary since 1882 and is located within the NE¼ of NE¼ of Section 20, T17N, R15E, MDB&M. See enclosed map for locations.

If water is being diverted by UPRRC from the two above sources the law requires that supplemental statements be filed with our office at three-year intervals. Copies of the supplement statements formerly assigned to the SPRRC including an informational packet explaining Statements of Water Diversion and Use are enclosed for your review.

If you have any questions, please telephone Ralph Gunby of this office at (916) 657-1938.

Sincerely,
